MONTHLY NEWSLETTER

OCTOBER 5, 2011

What a joy to be used by God to bless other people! The Lord recently called on the Mexican Christian Mission to help a family experiencing severe financial hardship in Tijuana. Sergio and Alejandra Garcia have a 5 year old son and an 18 month girl. They have been without work for months. Last week we went to Costco in Tijuana and filled up a large flat cart with food and household cleaning items for this family. They were so blessed having never seen such a large quantity of food in their home!

Our upcoming projects include a women's conference, Women Conquerors (Mujeres en Conquista) in Tijuana to deal with the serious problem of Human Trafficking in Mexico. Judith Guzman, daughter of Pastor Gaudencio Guzman, who has an advanced degree in Psychology, will be the primary speaker. We are also planning a pre-recorded skit to illustrate the various techniques used to kidnap or seduce young girls. Everyday girls are kidnapped off the streets to be sold into prostitution. This event will provide an excellent opportunity to provide useful information about this topic and share the gospel in a non-church setting.

In December we are working on a children outreach which will include a new toy for every child in attendance! A lot of things are happening; please keep us in your prayers.

God bless you all!
